RUSSIA REFUSES ENGLAND'S DEMAND FOR INQUIRY INTO THE KOMAROFF ACCIDENT.

An English Man-of-War at the Dardanelle Entrance—English Troops for India-St. Petersburg "Journal" on Gladstone's Speech -The British Budget Sensation,

LONDON, April 30 .- It is known that Earl Grauville's note, besides asking for an arbitration inquiry into the Komaroff incident, offered to end the dispute by coding to Russia the Lessar line under a distinct pledge that it shall be the abiding limit of the Russian frontier. The response of M. de Giers will reach here on Monday. It will announce the acceptance of the Lessar line, but a refusal to hold an inquiry into the Koma-

The work embraced in the bids will finish the terrace at the north and south sides and a section on the west side of the Senate wing. These portions are to be finished during the next facesi year. The remaining work, of which the principal portion is the grand stairways and the western section in front of the Senate wing, will, it is expected, take at least two years to build if the appropriations should be available.

It is understood that Mr. Olmstead, the landscape architect, proposes and is now at work in redesigning so much of the terrace work as appears between the two granite stairways, in order to procure the effect of a caseads or falling water from a height. The only difficulty at present in making an imposing and agreeable effect is the lack of a sufficient water supply. The cost of the whole work is estimated at about $735,000. at about $735,000.

House and State Department. President Cleveland has been less bothered by tramps than any other occupant for some years. The first two or three days of his administration witnessed the days of his administration witnessed the anastmont of some queer scenes, in which the doorke-pers and the "queer ones" fock part, but of late there has been a decided falling off in the attendance. The only one reported so far this week was the visit of an old woman on Tuesday. She came about noon and wanted to see "Grover," quick. So impatient was she at the delay by the doorkeepers in admitting her that she attempted to force her way, saying at the same time, "I want to see the President; I wans him to collect $2,000,000 from the government for me. Let me get up to I want him to collect $2,000,000 from the government for me. Let me get up to him," but she was stopped, and, after becoming calm, was told that the President had no authority to collect the money for her, and she want to see Secretary Bayard. She came to the white house again yesterday, but one of the officials shock his head at her before she reached the portico, and she turned and went away again.

The Freebel Auniversary Concert. The Froebel anniversary concert given last evening in the chapel of All Souls Church evening in the chapel of All Souls' Church proved a most enjoyable affair. The pupils of the National Kindergarten, led by the young ladies of the teachers' class, gave satisfactory proof of the excellent training they are receiving. As many of the pupils from the Free Kindergarten were present, they also sang, led by their teacher, Miss Annis Ritton. The concert proper was opened by Koszoukk's "Halero," played in excellent teats by Miss Katherine Hirney. The singing of Miss Bangs, Miss Domer, and Miss Griggs was highly appreciated by the audience. A fine piano solo was played by Mr. Harry Zimmerman. The drill by the National Rifle Cadets, under Capt. Charles Domer, was vigorously applauded and encored, as was Mr. David Bangs's inimitable recutations. Mrs. Poliock made the amnouncement at the close that the Free Kindergarten is no lenger at 924 G street, but on the first floor of the Kindergarten building, at 929 Eighth street, where visitors are always welcome.

Secretary Endicott Indignant.

Secretary Endicott returned from the north yesterday afternoon, and was seen by a reporter last night. In reterring to the alleged quarrel between himself and Gen. Sheridan, he said:
"There is not a word of truth in it. Gen. Sheridan and I are good friends, and there has been no trouble between us. I think that the conduct of the newspapers that started that story is disgraceful. I have no taste for such matters, and shall take no notice of the story, it is particularly unfortunate that Gen. Sheridan is absent from the city, but the story has been denied by everybody concerned."

"Can you imagine the source of the story."
"Yes, I can; but whose business is that."

THREE CENTS. MR. CLEVELAND'S CRITIC

THE PELICAN STATE SENATOR'S ATTACK ON THE ADMINISTRATION.

What Is Said About the Eastle Colonie-Pre-Gov. Kellogg's Explanation of the Eamily Shown-Bld the President Break His Palronage Pledges!

Senstor Eustis, of Louisians, left here a week ago to consult the leaders of his party regarding the distribution of local offices in that state. In an interview published there with the senator, he is quoted as denouncing President Cleveland and his Cabinot, and declared that he will fight in the Senate the policy now being pursued by Cleveland. "Mr. Cleveland." said the senator, "has been a conspicuous and humiliating failure. This administration was commenced with a series of blunders. The question now is whether these mistakes, patent to the whole country, are mistakes of the head or the result of evil promptings and treacherous conduct to the party whose principles he claims to represent. The fact that a horde of unscruppilous, ignorant, dyadinthe-wool, and offensive radical leaders are permitted to remain in office all over the country under Democratic rule is a shame and disgrace. The whole truth of the matter is that Mr. Cleveland is totally lacking in information respecting the condition of affairs in the south and west, and is rollint entirely on the feverish advice of a couple of Mugwump newspapers in New York, as ignorant as he regarding these imclaims to represent. The fact that a or Augusimp newspapers in New York, as ignorant as he regarding these important sections. It is now no longer a matter of the distribution of offices and government patronage, but a question of party principle, and the Democratic element will see to it that the administration is Democratic in the full significance of the term of of the term, or that Mr. Cleveland and his Cabinet shall fall and be buried in the ruins they have made."

The action of Mr. Eustis created con The action of Mr. Rustis created considerable excitement among Democrats in this olty. The general impression seemed to be that the senator was chagrined at the President's appointment of a naval officer at New Orleans and supervising inspector of the tenth eteamboat district. Senator Eastis represents, say Louisianians, the old mossback faction of the party, and he is mad because the President has chosen to recognize the reform element.

Senator W. P. Keilogg thinks that Senator Eustis is chagrined at the President's action in appointing the two men referred to. "As I understand it," said the senator, "Senator Eustis left here a week ago, assured by the President, that no appointments would be made until the leaders had decided upon a 'alute." Kernechen, the man who was reministed for leaders had decided upon a 'ainte.' Kernechen, the man who was nominated for naval officer at New Orleass, is not a Democrat of the same order as Mr. Eustis, and the latter eaused the nomination to be 'left over.' The senator left confident that the President would stick to his word, but he had not been gone many days before the President appointed Kernochen. Senator Gibson, I 'think, indorsed him, and as the latter reoresents the opposite element of the naky Mr.

dorsed him, and as the latter recressorts the opposite element of the party Mr. Eustis was not pleased. "The manner of securing the reigna-tion of Capt. Norton, the supervising in-spector of the tenth steambeat district, was an original one. He was induced to tender his resignation to take effect at the end of the fiscal year. When he san his resignation in it was accepted to take effect at once. I believe this is being done with a good many of our people. The successors of Senatore Ensits and Gibson are to be elected at the next ses-sion of the legislature and of course sion of the legislature, and, of course, those gentlemen are working hard to bureturned. In any event, if this quarrel continues, I think it will result favorable to the Republican party, in that they will let us have a fair election."

STOPPED WITH A NEW MISSION.

Mr. Kelley's Trip to Rome Delayed Considerable surprise was caused yesterday morning by the appointment of Hon. Authory M. Keiley of Virginia to be envoy extraordinary and minister plent potentiary to Austria-Hungary. It was thought that he would be given some South American mission or dropped ontirely. Mr. Kelley had declared his positive intention of leaving for Home yesterday to at least two newspaper men in different cities, and as he is in posses then of his commission it was thought that he might carry out his threat. A prominent official said yesterday in this connection: "The only way the adminis-tration had of heading him off was to give tration had of deading him off was to give him another place. He could have gone to Rome on his credentials and there awaited his instructions or recall, for that is what would have followed him, or passed him in the shape of a dispatch." passed him in the shape of a dispatch."

Whimnsorn, Bil.—Mr. Keiley left for New York at 10 o'clock yesterday merning. He decilined to be interviewed, but his brother, Rev. B. F. Keiley, stated that all reported interviews had been pure fabrications, and that his brother has never made public anything regarding his acceptance or rejection of the Italian mission.

The New York Sau's correspondent at
